

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

September.

Comes the days of mild September,
When each breath is like a drink
Of red wine, and we remember
Forests where old napes blink
At the sun; till, like an ember,
Of the burned out summer time,
Gloves each leaf; comes in September,
When the glories cease to climb.

Comes September; comes the flushing
Of the landscape pink and red—
Like red lips, red with the blushing
For something some one has said,
All her heart's blood swiftly rushing
An enervating her cheek—
Like red lips, red with the blushing
Of winged thoughts they long to speak.

Comes September, time of resting,
From the summer's rush and heat;
Time for ranging for and questing
Where the clover smell is sweet,
On the meadows, where the breathing
Lark against the rowdy breeze,
Lifts its song in peaceful, resting,
Coaxing, dreamy lilanes.

Goes the summer, going! going!
Heliotrope and gold and pink
And blood-red the leaves are blowing,
Every breath is like a drink;
Homing cows are softly lowing,
And the dazled forests spread
Blushing red, and "Goin', goin',"
Calls the lark, "the summer's fled."

When she left for a western bridal trip, she was attired in a tailored costume of hunter's green cloth, worn with a green plumed toque.

WOMAN'S INCONSISTENCY.

By SIR ROBERT AYTON.

Sir Robert Ayton, born 1570; died 1635; was a Scotchman knighted by James I. of England in 1612.

LOVED thee once, I'll love no more,
Thine be the grief as is the blame;
Thou art not what thou wast before,
What reason I should be the same?
He that can love unloved again,
Hath better store of love than brain:
God sends me love my debts to pay,
While unthrifts fool their love away.

Nothing could have my love o'erthrown,
If thou hadst still continued mine;
Yea, if thou hadst remained thy own,
I might perchance have yet been thine.
But thou thy freedom didst recall,
And if thou might elsewhere intrail;
And then how could I but disdain
A captive's captive to remain?

When new designs have conquered thee,
And changed the object of thy will,
It had been lethargy in me,
Not constancy, to love thee still.
Yea, it had been sin to go
And prostitute affection so,
Since we are taught no prayers to say
To such as must to others pray.

Yet do thou glory in thy choice,
Thy choice of his good fortune boast;
I'll neither grieve nor yet rejoice,
To see him gain what I have lost;
The height of my disdain shall be,
To laugh at him, to blush for thee;
To love thee still, but go no more
A beggar to a beggar's door.

*For the most humble and affectionate
Lover
Sir Robert*

South and Western, Trying to Chackmate Southern in Tennessee Mountains.

(By Associated Press.)
KNOXVILLE, TENN., September 6.—Developments here to-day indicate that the Southern Railway anticipates an effort by the South and Western Railroad to checkmate it in its efforts to build a road through mountain passes east of Johnson City, Tenn., 110 miles above Knoxville. A railroad contractor's outfit and a carload of laborers left here early to-day on a special train for a point near Johnson City, and information from there states that the work of constructing the Southern's extension from Johnson City to Emburyville, Tenn., will begin to-morrow. It is believed that the two railroads are rivals for the possession of certain valuable rights of way in difficult mountain passes.

BE AN APPEAL
FROM PETERSBURG

State Committee to Be Asked to Decide an Interesting Case.

PASTERS USED ON TICKETS

City Committee Sustained Their Legality—Arrange for Great Reunion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., September 6.—An appeal from a decision of the old Democratic City Council Committee, involving a very interesting, if not important question in politics, will be heard by the State Committee at its meeting in Richmond to-morrow night. At the recent primary election in this city in the Second Ward, three gentlemen, Messrs. E. D. Butler, Harvey Plummer and Dr. Pilcher, were candidates to be voted for for members of the Democratic City Committee. Their names were printed on the ticket, and they had complied with the requirements of the City Committee in filing their names in time. Their names were the only ones on the ticket, and the ward is entitled to three representatives on the committee.

PASTERS WERE USED.

During the progress of the primary election, opposition to these candidates, or more particularly to one of them, was developed, and pasters bearing three other names were placed over the candidates' names and voted. One of the latter, Mr. E. D. Butler, was defeated.

When the City Committee met to canvass the returns, objection was made to the use of the pasters as irregular and illegal. It was claimed Messrs. Butler, Plummer and Pilcher were the only candidates entitled to a place on the ticket, being the only ones who had complied with the requirements of the primary plan, and that the use of pasters was unlawful.

On the other hand it was alleged that in the matter of committee, the primary was an election and not a nomination. The committee sustained the legality of the pasters, and from this decision an appeal was taken to-day to the State Committee.

The new City Committee was to meet to-morrow night for organization, but in view of this appeal, this meeting has been postponed until the question of the pasters is passed upon by the State Committee. It is understood that the Chairman Elyson has given it as his opinion that the pasters were illegal and should not have been counted.

At the meeting of A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans to-morrow night, final arrangements for the great Confederate reunion, to be held in this city in the latter part of October, will be made. The people of Petersburg are responding nobly to the calls for assistance in receiving and entertaining the veterans and visitors who will attend the reunion.

The city sometime ago advertised for bids for catching and impounding the unlicensed dogs of the town, but no one responded, and compliance with the provisions of the dog ordinance is left practically to the good will of the people. Some eight or nine hundred dollars have been received from this source, out of probably $2,500 or $3,000 that should be paid in for dog medals.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.

Arrangements for the amusements at the Country Club during the fall and winter are being made. On the last day of this month there will be races and jumping competitions, and during the first week in October the hunting season will be opened. These features will prove very attractive, and as heretofore, will be greatly enjoyed by the society people.

Gilbert Leigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Belcher, of Ettrick, died this morning of meningitis, after a brief illness.

The resignation of Mr. W. Gordon McClellan, a member of the Common Council from Third Ward, is much regretted. He was a very careful and valued member of that body.

CAUGHT BENEATH

Frightful Experience of John Haines at Winchester Yesterday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., September 6.—Buried for nearly an hour under several tons of lumber was the frightful experience of John Haines, a teamster, from Hampshire county, Va., in Winchester late this afternoon. He is now at Memorial Hospital, in a precarious condition. A wheel of the wagon Haines was driving fell off, ran into another wagon, the lumber wagon upsetting in the meantime and pinning Haines under the heavy load. After the lumber was removed Haines was taken to the hospital, where he was found to be suffering greatly from chest injuries and internally.

FORMER MAYOR
TO SERVE TERM

Man Who Assaulted a Judge Must Pay the Penalty for His Act.

SUPREME COURT'S DECISION

Under It McCown Must Pay a Fine and Be Imprisoned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. C., September 6.—Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the Supreme Court, rendered his decision this morning against ex-Mayor M. E. McCown for his assault on Judge Ward. He said that he had been requested by the members of the court to say that after carefully considering the case they had decided that there was no ground for an appeal from the lower court, and the prayer for a new trial was therefore denied the defendant.

This decision on the part of the Supreme Court settles the case, and the defendant will now have to serve the sentence imposed upon him by Judge George W. Ward in this city Saturday night. The sentence is that the defendant be kept in jail thirty days and pay fine of $200.

Mr. McCown is now in the Durham jail, where he will remain until October 2d, as his attorneys say they cannot carry the case to the Federal Court unless they had better grounds upon which to fight for their client's release.

DENOUNCED BLACKBURN.

Assistant District Att'y Threatens to Cowhide Congressman.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., September 6.—Owing to differences growing out of rivalry over the nomination for Congress last year between Assistant District Attorney Prior and Republican Congressman Blackburn, Prior refusing to vote for Blackburn in the election, there was a sensational disturbance between them in a hotel lobby here Sunday night, which has just become public.

It seems that Blackburn had been told that efforts were being made to incite him in some of the alleged irregularities now under investigation by the grand jury here, and reminded the assistant district attorney that he could have had his official scalp months ago but for his forbearance, saying that this assurance had been given him in Washington. This made Prior angry and he denounced the Congressman, who made no answer, but then again he would publicly cowhide him, when the Congressman replied that he would certainly accommodate him, walked away.
